NEWS RELEASE

TOURS, Q&A PART OF OPEN HOUSE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

DAYTON, Ohio — High school students thinking of engineering will have the opportunity to learn about several careers in the field at an open house sponsored by the University of Dayton School of Engineering.

Free and open to all high school students and their parents, open house activities will begin at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, March 24, at several locations on campus. No advance registration is necessary.

From 9:30 to 10 a.m. in the Kennedy Union Boll Theatre, participants will hear about careers options in chemical, civil, computer, electrical and mechanical engineering and engineering technology.

From 10:15 a.m. to noon, participants can tour UD's Kettering Laboratories and the labs in Wohlleben Hall and the Mechanical Engineering Building.

Campus tours will be offered at noon and 1 p.m.

In conjunction with the open house, student and faculty representatives from the offices of admission, financial aid and cooperative education will be on hand for questions. Participants will also have the opportunity to meet practicing engineers and UD engineer alumni.

For more information, call the School of Engineering at (937) 229-2736.
